THE REV. J. H. STOCK.

Poverty.

The Rev. J. H. Stock preached his first sermon as the successor of the late Rev. Dr. Kynett yesterday morning. The service was held in the church at Ashland avenue and Monroe street, and was largely attended. The sermon was a remarkable one, and was listened to with the closest attention. The speaker took for his text the words of Christ, "The poor ye have always with you." The speaker said in part:

Entertainment of the Night in the Wards.

The regular evening entertainment for fallen women at the Church of the Epiphany, corner of Ashland avenue and Adams street, was held last night. The Rev. Arista Kinner, who has been in charge of the mission for the past two years, has resigned his position, and will leave for his home in Kansas, on the 15th of this month. The Rev. Mr. Kinner has been very successful in his work, and has done much good among the unfortunate women of the city. He has been assisted in his work by a number of ladies and gentlemen, who have been very kind in their attendance at the mission. Last night's entertainment was given in honor of the retiring pastor, and was largely attended. The programme was a very interesting one, and was rendered by the following ladies and gentlemen: Miss Lizzie Lewis, Miss Nellie Lewis, Miss Lizzie Lewis, Miss Nellie Lewis, Miss Lizzie Lewis, Miss Nellie Lewis,

Lieutenant-Governor William Travis, who goes to the coast of Labrador next month for the benefit of his health, was tendered a reception at the rooms of the Commercial Club last night. Governor Fifer presided, and there were also present Governor Altgeld, Mayor Harrison, Lieutenant-Governor Sheridan, Adjutant-General Scott, Quartermaster-General Orme, Auditor Brady, Secretary of State Hinrichsen, Treasurer Gill, Superintendent of Public Instruction Inglis, Attorney-General Moloney, Chief Justice Fuller, Judge Gresham, Judge Shepard, Judge Tuley, Judge Grinnell, Judge Waterman, Judge Allen, Judge Baker, Judge Stein, Judge Clark, Judge Bishop, Judge Ewing, Judge Prendergast, Judge Horton, Judge Gary, Judge Kohlsaat, Judge Showalter, Judge Dunne, Judge Goggins, Judge Ball, Judge Jamieson, Judge Brentano, Judge Barnes, Judge Chetlain, Judge Kersten, Judge Lambert, Judge Richmond, Judge Stiles, Judge Adams, Judge Hanecy, Judge Hawes, Judge Hutchinson, Judge Kavanagh, Judge Lyman, Judge Murray, Judge Pinckney, Judge Scanlan, Judge Shaw, Judge Tree, Judge Upton, Judge Wallace, Judge Williams, Judge Wing, Judge Wood, Judge Worthington, Judge Zeisler, Judge Ball, Judge Bonfield, Judge Brown, Judge Clifford, Judge Collins, Judge Dibell, Judge Ewing, Judge Gibbons, Judge Hanecy, Judge Hawes, Judge Hutchinson, Judge Kavanagh, Judge Lyman, Judge Murray, Judge Pinckney, Judge Scanlan, Judge Shaw, Judge Tree, Judge Upton, Judge Wallace, Judge Williams, Judge Wing, Judge Wood, Judge Worthington, Judge Zeisler.

A party of Northern tourists arrived at the Auditorium Annex yesterday afternoon. They will remain in the city for a few days, and while here will be entertained by a committee of the Commercial Club. The party is composed of the members of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, who have been spending the last few days at the Yellowstone Park. The party left Chicago last night for Milwaukee, where they will remain for a few days, and then go to Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth.

The Rev. John D. Morris, of Ashland, Wis., is at the Grand Pacific. Mr. Morris is the brother of the Rev. Thomas Morris, Commissioner and member of the committee from Kansas. It is a matter of fact that the commissioner and his brother have not met for many years, and the meeting at the Grand Pacific was a most affectionate one. Mr. Morris is a Methodist minister, and has been in the ministry for forty-two years. He has been stationed at Ashland for the last eight years. He will remain in the city for a few days, and will then go to Kansas City, where he will preach next Sunday.

At a meeting of Bethesda Baptist Church last night the congregation voted unanimously to extend a call to the Rev. J. B. Boomer, of Rockford, Ill., to become pastor of the church. Mr. Boomer is a graduate of the Chicago Theological Seminary, and has been in the ministry for about ten years. He has been pastor of the Rockford church for the last four years, and has been very successful in his work there. He will probably accept the call extended to him by the church.

The Executive Committee of the Illinois and Eastern Iowa Association and Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church met yesterday afternoon at the Methodist Book Concern, and decided to hold a camp-meeting at Epworth, Ind., on the 20th inst. The meeting will last ten days, and will be conducted by Presiding Elder Hamilton, of the Indiana district, and Presiding Elder Hoss, of the Chicago district. The Rev. Dr. Hamilton will be the principal speaker.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Harris Gilbert, a lawyer of the city, who has offices in the Rookery building, was arrested by Detective Power and Carpenter, charged with forgery. The arrest was made on the street, and Gilbert was taken to the Harrison street police station, where he was locked up. The charge against him is that he forged the name of Mrs. Mary Gilbert, his mother, to a note for $1,000, which he had discounted at the Corn Exchange National Bank. Gilbert was released on bail.

THE HON. JOHN A. MARTIN.

The Hon. John A. Martin, of Ashland, Wis., is at the Grand Pacific. Mr. Martin is the brother of the Rev. Thomas Morris, Commissioner and member of the committee from Kansas. It is a matter of fact that the commissioner and his brother have not met for many years, and the meeting at the Grand Pacific was a most affectionate one. Mr. Martin is a Methodist minister, and has been in the ministry for forty-two years. He has been stationed at Ashland for the last eight years. He will remain in the city for a few days, and will then go to Kansas City, where he will preach next Sunday.
